

Suree Towfighnia

3118 S. Cherokee Street, Englewood, CO 80110

773/517.3132, suree44@gmail.com

www.sureetowfighnia.com

SELECT DOCUMENTARY EXPERIENCE / DIRECTOR OF PHOTOGRAPHY / DIRECTOR / PRODUCER

Feature Documentaries, Prairie Dust Films, Director, Producer, Director of Photography (2001-present)

- Pipe Organ Fever Dream (working title, work-in-progress) a hybrid fiction/animation/documentary featuring a dog who furiously pounds out messages warning humans about the cancers of the world.
- Cancer in the Time of Covid (working title, work-in-progress) a personal documentary and satirical comedy about living through breast cancer treatment during a global pandemic.
- Coffee is Life / Café es vida (co-production with the Institute for Oaxacan Coffee, c. 2021) an animated short documentary featuring Oaxacan children who narrate the story of coffee from seed to cup.
- Nurturing Roots (working title, work-in-progress) a collaboration with a Oaxacan coffee cooperative about sustainable coffee production in Indigenous communities.
- Crying Earth Rise Up, (Corporation for Public Broadcasting/ Vision Maker Media funded, c. 2015) a feature documentary and multi-platform engagement project that intimately examines the human cost of uranium mining on the Great Plains and its impact on sacred water.
 - Distributed by NETA and Public Television. Raised over $140,000 from Native American Public Telecommunications (NAPT) / Corporation for Public Broadcasting, Seventh Generation Fund, Western Mining Action Network / Indigenous Environmental Network, Kickstarter, and individual donations.
 - Select Screenings and Festivals: over 2500 broadcasts on Public Television; Sedona International Film Festival; Native American Indian Film and Video Festival Southeast; Red Nation Film Festival; American Indian Film Festival SF; Society for Visual Anthropology Film and Media Festival; University of Colorado, Denver; Augsburg Native American Film Series, Minneapolis; Emerald Earth Film Festival; Liberated Lens; Show Me Justice Film Festival; International Uranium Film Festival, Berlin; Native Women in Film and Television Festival, Los Angeles; Byron Bay International Film Festival, Byron Bay, Australia.
- Standing Silent Nation (POV, CPB/ Vision Maker Media funded, c. 2007) a broadcast-length documentary chronicling a Lakota family's struggle to grow industrial hemp on sovereign tribal land and the DEA's refusal to allow it.
 - Distributed by CPB and Public Television. Raised over $128,000 from Vision Maker Media and foundations.
 - Select Screenings and Festivals: over 2500 broadcasts on Public Television; Sedona International Film Nationally broadcast on PBS's POV: The American Documentary and distributed by Documentary Educational Resources, Vision Maker Video, and Prairie Dust Films. Raised over $130,000 from the Playboy Foundation, NAPT / CPB, The Paul Robeson Fund for Independent Media, POV: The American Documentary/ CPB and donations and events. Select Screenings, Festival highlights and Awards include: National broadcast on Public Television's, POV (over 800 rebroadcasts); National broadcast on the FNX Network (over 1000 broadcasts); Sedona International Film Festival, Audience Award for Best Documentary Red Nation Film Festival, Best Documentary, Best Producer, Best Director; Indie Spirit Film Festival, Best Native American Documentary; Big Muddy Film Festival, Audience Award; IDA Pare Lorentz nomination for Best Documentary; High Times Magazine, Documentary of the Year
- Tampico, MFA Thesis, Director/DP/Co-Editor, Columbia College Chicago, 2006. A short documentary about a woman's struggle to support herself and her 50-year old mentally challenged brother by playing their family's traditional music in the subways of Chicago.

- Festival, funding and award highlights include: winner of the Studs Terkel Award from the Community Media Workshop; screened at the Chicago International Documentary, Milwaukee International, Sacramento Music festivals; raised over $6000 in grants and scholarships.

Features, Independent, Producer

- If We Film It, It's the Truth, (Alexandra Halkin and Paco Vazquez Co-Directors, work-in-progress) a feature documentary examining how media training and filmmaking helped shape 30 years of Zapatista and Indigenous resistance in southern Mexico.
- Four Days in Chicago, (Haskell Wexler Directed) exploring public dissent and popular protest against the NATO conference that took place in Chicago in 2012. Select screenings: Chicago International Social Justice Film Festival; The Nation tour; Woodstock Film Festival; Gene Siskel Film Center; Columbia College Chicago.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE / DIRECTOR / PRODUCER / EDITOR / DP / MEDIA COORDINATOR

Prairie Dust Films, 2002-present

Co-founder of independent documentary production company. In distribution on Crying Earth Rise Up and Standing Silent Nation. Provides documentary and video services to non-profits, organizations and commercial businesses. Develops and executes marketing plans, social justice and environmental campaigns, outreach efforts and distribution strategies. Offers master classes, training and consulting on fiction and documentary projects, storytelling and production. Trains and mentors the Lakota Media Project, a youth and women documentary organization on the Pine Ridge Reservation.

Select Freelance, 2004-present

- Producer + Field Producer + DP

Lakota and the Wild West and DP [Smithsonian National Museum of American History]

Tilting at the Sun and DP, Denver Unit [Dan Cass]

Silent Crisis: Financial Elderly Abuse [Illinois Dept. on Aging]

Diabetes and You, webisodes on healthy living with diabetes [See 3 and One Economy]

PBS "My Source" spots highlighting public television's youth impact [ITVS]

Healthy Co-Parenting for Teens [Illinois Dept. of Human Services]

- Field Producer + Sound Recordist

Who Needs Sleep? Chicago Unit [Haskell Wexler]

- Director + Producer + DP + Editor

Railroaders Exhibit, five media installations for Chicago History Museum [Media Monster]

Oh the Places You'll Go, org video about artist residents in Chicago hospital [Snow City Arts Foundation]

Chicago Run: Fast Track to a Healthy Life, fundraising and educational video [Chicago Run]

UCAN: Triumph Over Tragedy, documentary on youth overcoming trauma [See 3 and UCAN]

A Return to Wholeness: A Breast Cancer Recovery DVD Toolkit [Media Monster + Northwestern Hospital]

Weight of A Nation Documentary [Consortium to Lower Obesity in Chicago Children / HBO outreach]

Women for Obama, Obama for America campaign video for first presidency

Project AIM Is, documentary on the importance of arts integration in public schools [CCAP]

KIPP: Chicago, video on the strength of a KIPP education in at-risk communities [KIPP]

National Hellenic Museum, short video on new Greek museum in Chicago [NHM]

What's Your Calling? transmedia companion for PBS' The Calling [Kindling Group]

Chicago Magazine Green Awards, short video showcasing honorees [Chicago Magazine]
National Healthcare Reform: State Fair Stories, for Obamacare campaign [Center For Community Change]
Charting the Course, organizational video [Society for the Arts in Healthcare]
Project AIM: Artists Mentoring Teachers, video on arts integration in Chicago [See 3 and CCAP]

State of Arizona, Department of Economic Security, 2015-2017

Producer of short documentary success stories for state agency that services economically disenfranchised, elderly and special needs individuals. Completed over 25 short videos that are distributed on social media and the state's YouTube channel. Collaborative videos between many state agencies, interagency divisions and community partners. Subjects included: a community organization that provides housing for homeless youth; a couple with developmental disabilities celebrating twenty-five years of marriage; a young woman with Down Syndrome who runs her own bakery; a reentry training program for prisoners about to be released.

Online Media, 2008-present

- Peoples Media Project, Director/DP/Editor. Independent media collective that produces street journalism from contemporary frontlines. Shorts from Standing Rock include: "We Do This with Love for the People", "We Are Here to Protect Water and Sacred Sites", "We Are All One Warrior- Why We Wear a Mask", "Frontline Water Protectors Accosted" and "Why Do You Exist?" Previous shorts: "A Graveyard for Water", "NDN R.A.P. (Rebels Against Pipelines)", "Protect Sacred Water, No Pipelines", "Cindy Sheehan's Tour De Peace", "Voices Against SB1070: Dolores Huerta", among others.
- Al Jazeera Plus, Director/DP. "Copper Miners Vs. Apache People- Fighting for Sacred Land", May 2015 for AJ+ story with over 3 million views on Facebook; "Remembering James Foley", October 18, 2014; "Apache Tribe is Taking on a Copper Mine (One Year Occupation)", March 2, 2016 [AJ+].

Technical Coordinator of the Michael Rabiger Center for Documentary, 2000-2004

Responsible for running the Documentary Center; equipment budget, purchase, and maintenance; programming and educational events for students, faculty, and staff; student competitions and screenings; organized and ran professional development opportunities for students; supervised student workers; trained all documentary students on equipment; mentored the student documentary group, Viva Doc.

Photojournalism, Corporate, and Advertising Agency Work, 1997-2016

- Univision Channel 66 & 19, video journalist, Chicago 2004-2005 and Sacramento, CA, 1997-99.
- Coil, Counts, Ford, and Cheney Advertising director/DP/producer/editor of commercials and short videos.
- Black Raspberry Consumer Insights, Buchanan Group, Portico Research, national ethnographic video studies.
- Bein and Fushi multi-camera video recording of Strataveria Society violin performances, Chicago.

FACULTY / TEACHING / MASTER CLASSES / ARTIST-IN-RESIDENCE

Assistant Professor, Metropolitan State University, Denver, 2023-present

- Tenure Track Faculty in the Department of Journalism and Media Production, Video Production Program
- Co-Lead Video Production Curriculum
- Received Career Catalyst Award for student impact and mentorship, 2025 and 2026

Faculty, The Evergreen State College, 2017-2023

- Co-Faculty, 48 credit Mediaworks: Nonfiction and Experimental Approaches (2021-2022) with visual arts faculty
- Co-Faculty, 32-credit Advanced Projects in Media and Visual Arts (fall/winter 2020-2021) with visual arts faculty
- Faculty, 12-credit Advanced Projects in Media and Visual Arts (spring 2021)
- Faculty sponsor, 24-credit Evergreen Media Internship Program with electronic media staff (2020-2021)
- Co-faculty, 16-credit media studies, geography, and native studies' class Catastrophes: Community Resilience in the Face of Natural Disaster, with geography/native studies faculty.
- Co-faculty, 48-credit media arts and studies foundational, interdisciplinary, yearlong program, Mediaworks. Mediaworks is an intensive program with 45+ students who stay with the program all year and learn theory, history, and practice. Iterations have included: Mediaworks: Nonfiction and Experimental Approaches to the Moving Image, with visual artist and photo faculty (2019-2020); Mediaworks: Signifying Power and Difference on Screen(s), with community media faculty and queer studies/remix faculty (2017-2018); Mediaworks: Animation, Documentary, and Experimental Approaches to the Moving Image, with animation faculty (2018-2019). –
- Developed and taught summer classes Writing for Film/Video and Video Production Field Skills (2018, 2019).

Instructor, Arizona State University, 2014-2017

- Developed and taught Introduction to Documentary Writing in the Film and Media Studies and English Departments (online).

Documentary / Media Trainer, Owe Aku, 2010-2017

Worked on Water is Life media campaign for water protector camp at Standing Rock. Created Moccasins on the Ground Non-Violent Direct Action training for the Indigenous campaign to stop the Tar Sands Keystone XL Pipeline. Developed curriculum and training on “Creating Compelling Stories”, “Documenting Your Movement from Within” and “Working with Mainstream Media”. Taught intensive training workshops on storytelling techniques and technical skills to effectively document a targeted message: stopping the Keystone XL Pipeline.

Facilitator and Consultant with the Lakota Media Project, Prairie Dust Films and Owe Aku, 2003-present

Mentor youth and women in filmmaking and social activism on the Pine Ridge Reservation in South Dakota. The Lakota Media Project creates original non-fiction media from their own perspective.

Part-time Faculty, Columbia College Chicago, 2003-2005, 2006, 2013

- Co-faculty Producing the Documentary (2013)
- Developed and co-faculty on the course Visualizing the Documentary, an interdisciplinary course between the Documentary and Cinematography departments (2003-2006)
- Developed and faculty on survey course The Music Documentary (2003-2004)
- Faculty, Documentary Production I, the introduction course in Documentary Theory and Practice.

Professor, International School of Cinema and Television (EICTV) in Cuba, January 2011, November 2012

-Professor, Introduction to Documentary Intensive, Aprender a Mirar (To Begin to See), for first-year advanced degree students, January 2011 and November 2012. Taught documentary aesthetics, theory and practice, as well as intensive group production to thirty inter-disciplinary students from all over the world in preparation for a director-led group practicum of films exploring a small community located off-campus. This 21-class workshop introduced students to documentary during their first year of the three-year program.

Professor, International School of Cinema and Television (EICTV) in Cuba, Sept 2008

-Professor, Documentary Directing Intensive for second-year advanced degree students in San Antonio de los Baños, Cuba. Introduced thirty-two multi-disciplinary film students from twelve countries to documentary form, theory and practice. Students created individual documentary films (that turned into an impromptu production during an evacuation and refuge during Hurricane Ike). This course prepared students for a six-week group practicum.

Teaching Artist with Project AIM and the Center for Community Arts Partnership, 2004-2010

Collaborated with classroom teachers in Chicago Public Schools to integrate filmmaking into everyday curriculum. Created films with elementary classrooms on student-driven topics, including: immigration, water, social concerns, war, gangs, peace, water and other student interests. Chicago.

Documentary Workshop Curriculum Development, Trainer and Consultant, See 3 Communications, 2010-2011

Worked on National Council on Aging's Older Americans Act Campaign; Create and taught a three-part training series to representatives from dozens of national organizations, who returned to their home communities to document stories of Older Americans. These short videos were used to invoke local representatives to support reauthorizing the Older Americans Act.

Guest Lecturer, Columbia College Chicago, 2004-2012

Taught production classes on fundraising, production, cinematography, documentary aesthetics and documentary career options to Narrative Film Production, Producing the Documentary and Documentary 1 courses.

Instructor and Presenter, Museum of Contemporary Art, Chicago, 2009

Created teacher and artist workshop "Deciphering Otherness: A Celebration of Contemporary Identity". Explored strategies that teachers and artists can utilize with regard to issues around contemporary identity, representation and who gets to tell the story. Presented ideas of inclusion and creating an equal classroom through the film process.

Artist-in-Residence, Snow City Arts Foundation, 1999-2002

Taught hospitalized, pediatric patients filmmaking concepts and produced fiction, documentary, experimental and animated shorts.

Artist facilitator, Latino Art Beat, 2002

Mind the Gap documentary exchange project. Collaboration between teens in Chicago and the Isle of Wight, England, in response to post-September 11th international relations.

HONORS / AWARDS / GRANTS

- 2026 Provost Mini-Grant, MSU Denver [Pipe Organ Fever Dream, fiction film]
- 2026 Dean's Innovation Grant, MSU Denver [Nurturing Roots Event, Fall 2026]
- 2025 Career Catalyst Award, MSU Denver [Faculty Mentorship Award]
- 2025 Dean's Innovation Grant, MSU Denver [Social Documentary Field Study, Spring 2026]
- 2024 Career Catalyst Award, MSU Denver [Faculty Mentor Award]
- 2024 Dean's Innovation Grant, MSU Denver [Stories from the Colorado River]
- 2024 Provost Mini-Grant, MSU Denver [Cancer in the Time of Covid]
- 2023 Creative Capital, Finalist [Cancer in the Time of Covid]
- 2022 The Evergreen State College, Professional Travel Grant [Oaxaca, Mexico, Museo Filatelia Presentation]
- 2021 Student Undergraduate Research Fellowship, Evergreen State College [Café es vida / Coffee is Life]
- 2019 Two Student Undergraduate Research Fellowship, Evergreen State College [Café es vida / Coffee is Life]
- 2018 The Evergreen State College, Professional Development Grant [Assembly Across Borders Oax, Mexico]
- 2018 Student Undergraduate Research Fellowship, Evergreen State College [Standing Silent Nation]
- 2018 Faculty Foundation Grant Recipient, Evergreen State College [Standing Silent Nation]
- 2015 John Michaels Award at the Big Muddy Film Festival [Crying Earth Rise Up]
- 2014 Grant Recipient, American Endowment Fund [Crying Earth Rise Up]

2011 Grant Recipient, Honor the Earth [Crying Earth Rise Up]
 2010 Grant Recipient, Seventh Generation Fund [Crying Earth Rise Up]
 2010 Grant Recipient, Indigenous Environmental Network / WMAN [Crying Earth Rise Up]
 2010 Grant Recipient, Vision Maker Media, Corporation for Public Broadcasting [Crying Earth Rise Up]
 2008 Best Director, Red Nation Film Festival [Standing Silent Nation]
 2008 Best Documentary, Red Nation Film Festival [Standing Silent Nation]
 2008 Documentary Winner, University Film and Video Association Conference [Standing Silent Nation]
 2008 Best Native American Documentary, Indie Spirit Film Festival [Standing Silent Nation]
 2009 Programming Selection, Smithsonian, Museum of the American Indian [Standing Silent Nation]
 2008 Audience award, Sedona International Film Festival [Standing Silent Nation]
 2008 Audience award, Big Muddy Film Festival [Standing Silent Nation]
 2007 Best Documentary, High Times' Stony Award [Standing Silent Nation]
 2007 Honorable Mention, IDA Pare Lorentz for Best Documentary [Standing Silent Nation]
 2007 Programming Selection, PBS' POV 20th Anniversary Season [Standing Silent Nation]
 2007 Funding Award, POV: The American Documentary and CPB [Standing Silent Nation]
 2006 Grant Recipient, Playboy Foundation [Standing Silent Nation]
 2005 Grant Recipient, Paul Robeson Fund for Independent Media [Standing Silent Nation]
 2004 Grant Recipient, Native American Public Telecommunications, CPB [Standing Silent Nation]
 2004 Studs Terkel Award for Community Media, Student Scholarship, Community Media Workshop [Tampico]
 2004 Scholarship Recipient, Judith Weston, Directing Actors Workshop
 2003 Albert P. Wiseman Fund [Tampico]
 2002 Columbia College Production Funds, multiple years [Tampico]
 2001 Graduate Opportunity Award, Columbia College
 2000 Student Representative Cinethics: 2000, North Carolina School of the Arts [Columbia College Chicago]
 2000 Rosebud Award for Graduate Scholarship, Columbia College
 1999 Follett Fellowship, Columbia College

PUBLISHED WORKS

- "Using Documentary as a Framework for Student Engagement with Environmental Movements," contribution to Teaching Media dossier on "Environmental Documentary: Media Making and Ecologies of Meaning," edited by Benjamin Mendelsohn, 2024.
- "Nurturing Roots: Transborder Bridging and Intergenerational Learning," A Socially Just Classroom: Transdisciplinary Approaches to Teaching Writing Across the Humanities, Vernon Press, 2022.
- "Lakota Women and Ranchers Lead Charge to Break Silence against Uranium Mine," article published in Waging Non-Violence, October 5, 2015.
- "Developing a Short Film: From a Humble Concept to the Big Screen," AIMprint, New Relationships in the Arts and Learning, 2008.

PANELS / PRESENTATIONS / HOSTED EVENTS

- Organizer/ Moderator, Career Connections: Film Industry Panel co-hosted with the Colorado Office of Film Television and Media, MSU Denver, April 2026.
- Organizer / Coordinator, Stories from the Colorado River Basin panel and video series featuring Indigenous water protectors, MSU Denver, April 2025.
- Panelist, New Ways of Re-Imagining Transformation through Art, History, and Social Justice, ASU+GSV Summit of global tech leaders, educators, developers, and key stakeholders, August 9, 2021.

- Organizer/Host, I Miss Seeing You, Drive-In film festival of Evergreen films, May 2021, and Oct 2022.
- Organizer/Host, Nurturing Roots: Culture, Sustainability, Land Use Symposium and Teach-in at the Evergreen State College, featuring Indigenous community members from Oaxaca, the Great Plains, and the Pacific Northwest speaking about land use, migration, and cultural protection, November 2019.
- Organizer/Host, Mediaworks Alumni Panel, featuring 5-6 notable and diverse media arts alumni who returned to share stories and advice with students, May 2018 and May 2019.
- The Waters Connect Us, Symposium at the Evergreen State College, in support of water protection and restoration work from the southwest to the Pacific Northwest, November 13-14, 2018. Organizer/Host
- Presentation on Water Protection Work in Indigenous Communities and screened Crying Earth Rise Up at the International Assembly for Community Development across Borders, in Oaxaca, Mexico, August 2018.
- Unite to Fight, Lakota School of Liberation: Developed and taught workshops in “Documenting a Movement from Within the Movement”, “Media Literacy” and “The Role of Media in Social Activism”, 2008-2017.
- The Waters Connect Us: A Gathering on the Gila River Indian Community, in support of water protection work being done from Canada to Ecuador, Spring 2016. Organizer/Host
- Environmental Film Forums: Screening and event series in New York, Chicago, the Pine Ridge Reservation, and in the southwest to use films to encourage community dialogue and action, 2009-2017. Organizer
- Sister Cities: Presenter on film diversity, for Lahore / Chicago Sister Cities event
- From Pine Ridge to Chicago: A Celebration of Environmental Activists and Their Work, Chicago, 2011. Organizer/Host/Trainer/Youth Media
- Niles North High School: Guest Lecturer to American Studies, Environmental Science classes, and social justice club, 2008-2016. Presenter
- Silent Nation Project: Creating Social Change in Chicago, three outreach events using documentary film and local organizations to inspire positive social movements, 2008. Organizer/Host
- “Lost in Translation” workshop developer to Teaching Artists with Center for Community Arts Partnership. Interactive workshop self-reflective exploration of things that are lost when we don’t speak our language.

SELECTED BIBLIOGRAPHY & REVIEWS

Behrens, Web. “Doc film fest shines a light on the locals.” Chicago Tribune, 3/29/07.

Brokaw, Chet. “Pine Ridge Farmer Struggles to Grow Hemp.” Indian Country Today, 7/6/7.

Fagan, Ken. “ASU Insight: Making of a Documentary.” ASU News, 1/23/17.

Hand, Natalie. “It’s Mother Earth vs. Father Greed in New Pine Ridge Uranium Documentary.” Indian Country Today, 3/3/15.

Hand, Natalie. “Debra White Plume Fights for Sacred Water—With a Film.” Indian Country Today, 4/2/15.

Heffernan, Virginia. “The Battle Over Hemp on an Indian Reservation.” The New York Times, 7/3/07.

Indians.com. “Lakota Hemp Documentary to Premiere on PBS.” 7/3/07

Jenkins, Tara. “Behind the Legend: A Candid Look at Haskell Wexler, ASC in Shoot from the Heart.” American Cinematographers, 2/3/22.

Koziarski, Ed. “Political comedy set against election turmoil screens trailer in election night benefit party.” Reelchicago.com, 10/21/04

Lakota Times. “Crying Earth Rise Up Examines the Human Cost of Contaminated Water & the Fight to Prevent the Expansion of Uranium Mines.” 3/12/15

Nauman, Talli. “White Plumes documentary film faces fund raising deadline.” Native Sun News, 10/25/13.

Nauman, Talli. “Crying Earth Rise Up Premieres.” Native Sun News, 8/26/15.

Santiago, Luz. “Cartas con olor a café.” Boletín FAHHO Digital No. 11, La Fundación Alfredo Harp Helú Oaxaca, Enero, 2022.

Tanaka, Jennifer. “Meet Our 2010 Green Awards Documentarian, Suree Towfighnia.” Chicago Magazine, 4/13/10.

EDUCATION

Columbia College Chicago, 2006, MFA recipient (emphasis documentary film/directing). Studied under Michael Rabiger, Wen Hwa-Tsao, Herb DiGioia, Russell Porter, Mehrnaz Saeed-Vafa, Paula Froehle.

University of California, Santa Cruz, 1995, BA History, BA Latin American Studies. Studied under David Sweet.

SPECIAL SKILLS/EQUIPMENT / SOFTWARE PROFICIENCY

· Spanish fluency · Journalism and media ethics · Directing, producing, editing, assistant directing, archival research, interviewing, writing, fundraising · Cameras: 4K, HD, 16mm, HDV, EX3, FS5, Digital SLR, DVC Pro, Betacam, DVCAM, 8mm · Field production, multi-camera shoots, television studio and field technical directing, drone directing, familiarity with VR · Sound recording: Shure Mixer/boards/lavs/stereo mics · Editing and Audio: Adobe Creative Suites (Premiere, Audition, Photoshop), Avid, Final Cut Pro and X, Pro-Tools · Lighting: Studio, Interview, Green Screen, Infinity · Campaign development and management, community engagement, outreach

